

CENTRAL AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT INSTITUTION (CAGDI)

TERM OF SERVICE

Section - 3

Center Director Nomination Process Terms and Conditions

- 01. The nomination process of the center operator will be done online through first come first serve etc. Application for center operator can be made by individual or group or self-help group member or farmer producer group member or cooperative society or their members.
- 02. CC installed by the center operator for weight measurement or other weight measurement, computer set, online monitoring of about one ton to twenty ton capacity to be installed in the Farmer Service Center / Mini Collection Center / Milk Collection Center established by the Central Agricultural Development Institution. It will be mandatory to make entries in the entry sheet on daily basis regarding TV or other equipment or plants located at the centre, seeds, organic fertilizers, animal feed etc., agricultural plants etc. or anything else.
- 03. It will be mandatory for the center operator (individual) to have a minimum qualification of high school.
- 04. Self-help groups or farmer producer groups or cooperative societies can directly submit proposals for nomination or appointment to the post of center director.
- 05. On the form or application received for nomination or nomination to the post of Center Director, the nomination or appointment process will be done through scrutiny, interview etc. by the board constituted by the Central Agricultural Development Institution and will be nominated under the renewal process on the basis of eleven months' work performance.

Note--: The terms and conditions related to center director nomination or nomination etc. at each Farmer Service Center / Mini Collection Center / Milk Collection Center of the Central Agricultural Development Institution are subject to change or update on the basis of seasonal or geographical changes, any disputes arising in the matter etc. court of etc.